AFTERMATH OF GILLIGAN TRIAL

Argument for a New Trial Will Begin To-day.

NO FIRST DEGREE VERDICT

Lawyers Claim that the Sentence Imposed Upon Gilligan Cannot be Raised to Murder in First Degree—Subscriptions are Being Raised all Over the State to Help Secure New Trial for Prisoner—Miss Turner Receives Many Letters of Sympathy from Friends—Our Regular Suffolk Letter.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.) Suffolk, Va., June 25.—In pursuance of the intention to get a new trial for Andrew Carter Gilligan, who was Saturday afternoon convicted of murder in the second degree and given eighteen years by an Isle of Wight jury, one of the prisoner's lawyers was at court to-day to press the motion. Colonel R. E. Boykin, State's attorney, was ill and court was adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning without action. Mr. Holland was present for the prosecution and Mr. Edwards for the defence. The crowd was very small.

Should Judge Atkinson overrule the motion to set aside the verdict, an appeal will probably be taken to Circuit Judge Prentiss, of Suffolk. It will take many days for the completion of records.

NO FIRST DEGREE VERDICT.

In view of the likelihood of appeal there was some discussion among outside lawyers as to whether the grade of punishment could be raised at the second trial. Most of the attorneys here say that Gilligan can not now be convicted of first degree murder for the shooting of C. E. Turner, and he would have nothing to lose except cash and time by having a new trial. The prisoner himself has no money, but it is thought that the price of an appeal can be easily raised, so much interest has the case excited. Several men and a few ladies in different parts of the State have offered to contribute something for a re-hearing. Gilligan, as is usual in cases of this sort, has more sympathizers among the gentler sex, while Miss Turner seems more popular among men. Of course her feminine friends have not deserted her, and the above propositions are meant to apply where neither is personally known.

MISS TURNER'S SYMPATHIZERS.

Miss Turner told me the other day that she had gotten a great many messages of sympathy for the conspicuous part she was forced to take in this most sensational of trials. Many persons at a distance, whom she knew only slightly, have sent tender words of encouragement, which helped to soften the temporary humiliation engendered by the searchlight of publicity being thrown among the precious secrets of romantic young womanhood. Saturday afternoon Miss Turner and her mother, after they had shaken hands with a few friends, drove off the court green just before the verdict was rendered.

Further inquiry to-day confirmed the report sent to the Virginian-Pilot Saturday night that the jury stood three for first and nine for second degree murder. Foreman J. O. Branch, C. F. Jayner and R. E. Britt were for capital punishment, and B. H. Wilkinson hesitated for awhile, but voted for the lesser penalty.

JUDGE ATKINSON'S ENDURANCE.

The endurance of Judge Atkinson is a very remarkable feature of the trial. Beginning with regular County Court day, June 4, this was the nineteenth consecutive day he has ridden from his home in Smithfield.

Judge Atkinson is about 77 years old. There are few Virginia jurists who are so active, and few men anywhere who are better preserved.

A FEW JUDICIAL PICKUPS.

The case of William Wells, administrator, against the Norfolk and Western Railroad, is due to be called in Nansemond Circuit Court to-morrow. The plaintiff asks damages in $10,000 for the killing of Brakeman Wells in a wreck at Lake Kilby last June 9.

The lawyers are Messrs. Kilby and Epps for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Holland, Bernard and Mann for the railroad.

The suit of Christopher Norfleet vs. the Atlantic and Danville Railroad will be called early in July.

Police Judge Brewer to-day charged W. J. D. Bullock $5 for striking William Eaker.

Justice Bunting, in Nansemond county, to-day gave John Evans a debt of $5.00 for assaulting Jim Payne.

WHAT JOHN KILBY DID.

John R. Kilby, a son of Judge W. J. Kilby, won several honors this season at Randolph-Macon College. He took the A. B. degree, was class historian, and earned the Sutherland prize on oratory and a debaters' medal. He was a

President Cannot Visit Atlanta.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Washington, June 25.—A party of distinguished Georgians called on the President to-day and invited him to visit Atlanta, on July 20th, the anniversary of the battle of Peachtree Creek, which occurred on July 20, 1864. The anniversary is to be made the occasion of the re-union of the ex-Union and ex-Confederate soldiers, who participated in that engagement. The fact that, according to present arrangements, the President will be in Canton on that date will prevent his visiting Atlanta on the 20th.

The delegation consisted of W. A. Hemphill, H. H. Cabaniss, Ex-Governor of Bullock, Mayor H. H. Smith, J. P. Arevill, C. R. Hoeknis, E. H. Thornton, H. N. Randolph, T. B. Sawtell and A. G. West.

"A Grand Remedy," Says Mr. Thornton.

"I have been suffering with indigestion and dyspepsia. I tried all the remedies as well as several eminent physicians, without avail. I was induced to try Tyner's Dyspepsia Remedy and the first dose relieved me. It is a grand remedy. I recommend it as worthy of a trial by all who wish to be cured."
